North Brookfield Savings Bank's Back-to-School Drive Provides Essential Supplies to Local Students

Mark Lussier, FVP, Director Retail and Deposit Operations at NBSB, Chrissy Lavin, Principal of East Brookfield Elementary School and Audrey Shampine, Marketing Manager at NBSB.

North Brookfield, MA – North Brookfield Savings Bank (NBSB) is proud to announce the successful completion of its annual Back-to-School Supply Drive, an initiative designed to help local students begin the school year with the tools they need to learn, grow, and succeed.

Thanks to the generosity of community members, customers, and employees, the Bank collected 580 school supply items along with more than $945 in monetary donations, all of which were distributed to local schools throughout the region.

The donations were delivered to Old Mill Pond School, North Brookfield Elementary School, East Brookfield Elementary School, Warren Community Elementary School, Brookfield Elementary School, Swift River Elementary School, and Stanley M. Koziol Elementary School, helping ensure students have access to essential classroom supplies as they begin the new academic year.

“At North Brookfield Savings Bank, community is at the heart of everything we do,” said Audrey Shampine, Marketing Manager at NBSB. “The incredible support we received for this year's Back-to-School Supply Drive demonstrates what can be accomplished when neighbors come together to help one another. We are grateful to everyone who contributed and helped us provide students with the supplies they need to start the school year feeling confident and prepared.”

NBSB believes every child deserves the opportunity to begin the school year ready to learn, regardless of their circumstances. Through initiatives like the Back-to-School Supply Drive, the Bank continues its commitment to strengthening local communities and supporting the students and families it serves.
