

Open House & Member Showcase Set for April 29

Quaboag Hills Chamber of Commerce invites all to a free and public event at their new office location in Palmer

Palmer, MA, April 8, 2026 – In December, the Quaboag Hills Chamber of Commerce relocated its office operations to a new rented space at Pathfinder Tech's – Four Corners building at 191 Sykes Street in Palmer. The building is the former Country Bank Four Corners branch and is now home to many of Pathfinder Tech's Adult Continuing Education programs, as well as, weekly meetings by the Chamber's Quaboag Referral Group, who is sponsoring the event.

The Open House & Member Showcase will take place on Wednesday, April 29 from 5pm-7pm and will feature music, food and giveaways. Not only is the public invited to see the former bank building renovations that have taken place, but to also interact and sample with more than a dozen businesses and organizations who will be set up both indoors and outside promoting their products and services. Those businesses include: The Valley's Classic Hits, the Quaboag Referral Group, the Behavioral Health Network, Bucha Bros, Cedarbrook Village at Ware, Christopher Heights of Belchertown, Gray Craig Farm, Hardwick Vineyard & Winery, Holiday Inn Express Ludlow, J. Stolar Insurance Agency, Pathfinder Tech, Ravage Designs, Roberts & Ludlow Printing, The Quaboag Valley C.D.C. & B.A.C., the Steaming Tender Restaurant and more.

"We are proud to celebrate our new location and provide visitors with a fun setting to interact with the Quaboag Hills business community at this free event," said James Przypek, CEO of the Quaboag Hills Chamber of Commerce. "By bringing our region's diverse entrepreneurs and established industry leaders together, we're creating a unique space for residents and fellow professionals to discover the incredible talent right here in our own backyard. We invite everyone to join us to experience firsthand the collaborative spirit that drives our local economy forward and to see why there's never been a better time to be 'open for business' in the Quaboag Hills."

Guests are welcome to RSVP on the Chamber's website, QHMA.com, or stop in at their leisure during the Open House.
